NEIGHBORHOOD NEWSMAGAZINE
FOR THE VILLAGE HOMES AT STONEGATE WEST

A Message from the HOA Board

Greetings everyone from your friendly and volunteer Board of Directors of the Stonegate West Homeowners Association (SGW-HOA).

After a difficult winter it's nice to have some nice weather to get outside. As you have noticed we have many individual walkers and dog walkers in the neighborhood. Speaking of walking we are working with a contractor to repair the walking path around the pond behind the clubhouse. Stay tuned for updates on that situation. Our trial of a couple fake swans and a strobe light seems to have diminished the goose poop volume on the path. We will be doing that again this year.

We sealcoat all driveways every 2 years and 2022 is the year that it will be done. An announcement will be forthcoming as to the spring date of this work.

A gentle reminder to check the outside siding on your house and particularly the north side for green or black mold. It is each homeowner's responsibility to keep their home clean without mold. Our inspector will be checking every home this spring and if you have excessive mold, you will receive a letter instructing you to have it cleaned.

Dumpsters are permitted in the driveways for a brief period if you are moving in or out or remodeling. Approval must be obtained from our management company RealManage. Contact Kelly Henry at stonewes@ciramail.com or 866-473-2573.

If you are new to our community—welcome! We have several communication tools within the community including the weekly enews and our website: www.stonegatenwesthoa.com, that allow you to be informed about happenings within the community. The web site also includes a classified page if you are interested in selling or buying things.

When the community was established in 2005 Block Captains were created and still exist today. This was done to enhance communications between neighbors if an emergency existed. You should familiarize yourself with your Block Captain so that he/she has your correct contact information. Block Captains are listed in the directory.

Once again for all you new residents we have many, many activities that hopefully will be restarting with the Covid restrictions diminishing. Dinner group; Bridge; Canasta; Euchre; Pinochle; Well Red Book Club; Ladies of the Links; Nine and Dine; Pickleball; Bocce Ball; Wine Club; Spirits Club; Bunco; Yoga; Men's and Ladies' Monthly Lunch; Mah Jongg; Singles Club; Semi-Serious Bike Club. Spring and fall Garage Sale. If there is something that you want to do that is not currently available, start it.

Also, don't forget our wonderful Neighbor to Neighbor Group helping our residents with short term health challenges/needs. Please contact Barb Polen at bap06@sbcglobal.net or 630-730-9768 if you know of a neighbor that has a need or if you have a need. We have over 25 volunteers that assist with this very important function.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Grounds& Landscaping –George

- Kuhn's Landscaping applied the final fall fertilizer treatment during the week of October 3. This was a bit later than normal due to the recent wet weather patterns. They will start removing the dead hostas in early November...again a bit later because of the warmer fall weather. In addition, they will start the leaf collection process and have started to cut the grass shorter for winter.
- For the most part, we have been pleased with the services provided by ILM, our current contractor for wetland and dry land stewardship in and around our 5 wetland areas. They aggressively treated the algae blooms and other invasive water plants. Cattails were treated with herbicide and the dead stalks were recently removed in pond 1. We thought the ponds were much improved this year and I will be making a motion to continue with their services in 2021.
- ILM will do a controlled burn around all detention areas in the spring. In addition, they will be doing some native plantings to include emergent plants in the wetland area.
- Our geese deterrent efforts in pond 1 have been more successful this year and we will be having the lights and fake swans reinstalled next year. Two additional swans will be joining the ones we have next year. Fountains have been removed.
- We continue to monitor the condition of our trees along Indian Trail behind the Kensington homes. Three dead/declining trees will be removed this fall. Otherwise, we continue to have the dead branches trimmed and plan to look at installing some lines of bushes on the berm in areas that are more open.
- For those that alerted us, many thanks for the notifications about broken sprinkler heads. Tom Ferrari and I have mapped out the entire system and can shut down specific zones until repairs are made. Broken heads are a big waste of water and increase our watering bill if they are not remedied quickly.

SGW HOA BOARD MEETING MINUTES

Rules and Regulations—Jay: Nothing new to report

Security—John: Nothing new to report

Social and Communications—Susan

Social: The July 24th block party was very successful, despite some threatening weather and some hot humid temperatures. More than 100 people attended. Thanks to Maureen Ferrari and Donna Posuch who were instrumental in planning and executing the event. Also, thanks to Steve Hinkle for taking photographs, Sue Krueger for games and Ken Kuziel for music. Thanks to the many volunteers who helped with registration, games, set up and break down.

The Meet and Greet sessions for the fall were canceled after the mask mandate was put back into effect. The holiday party is scheduled for December 4 but will be cancelled if the mask mandate is not lifted by then. Invitations have been distributed with an RSVP deadline of Nov 20.

The only planned social event for 2022 is the block party for Saturday, June 25, due to the need to secure the caterer and the tent. Other activities for 2022 will be planned after the COVID-19 situation is clearer.

Neighbor to Neighbor(N2N) update: Susan for Barb Polen:

N2N has been busy in 2021 responding to neighbors needing help and sympathy. The board recently replenished the funds with $400. Barb asked to remind everyone to let her know when a resident is in need -- N2N is here for you.

Communications—Susan: The next issue of The Village Crier will be mailed in mid-December. I am the liaison to submit content from SGW to Allegra, the service that will do layout, design, advertising, printing and mailing of each quarterly issue. Donna Posuch, along with several new volunteers (Shawn Curoe, Julie Wall and Irene Baker), is helping to collect content. Many thanks to Peggy Prince for her hard work as editor on The Village Crier. Peggy has "retired" after many years of organizing, handling ads/coordinating content and distributing the newsletter.

The neighborhood directory was updated and distributed this month. I will handle any corrections during the coming year and am getting pricing for printing/mailing with Allegra for the 2022 edition.

Great news: Susan Engdall is now publisher of eNews; Irene Baker will be her back-up! Susan and I are working out the details and spending a lot of time learning how to use the new software, Constant Contact. We have struggled a good bit with getting the distribution list from MailChimp, but with many thanks to Ed Posuch, we are almost set to go-- hoping for the debut of the new eNews in a week or two. Many, many thanks to Joan Pickart who for many years has sent the weekly email to Village homeowners -- we thank her for all of her hard work!

Architecture—Donna:

For 2021, we have had 38 requests to date, of which 30 have been approved in 2 days or less. The remaining ones required additional information/adjustments from the homeowner. There is nothing outstanding at this point. I want to thank the members of my committee for their quick responses: Maureen Ferrari, Scott Rogers and Irene Baker.

MISC.

January board meeting scheduled for January 11 via gotomeeting

Auto Pay – there are currently 107 owners signed up for Auto Pay.

Old Business: John explained as previously reported at the April and July meetings, he had contacted the Aurora Engineering Dept. regarding sidewalk issues. A few residents had tripped and fallen, with various injuries. He discussed several areas of concern and the three worst were repaired immediately. The city told him it intended to try a method other communities have used, grinding the adjacent sidewalks down to even the height. This was tried in Carillon in the late summer and was deemed a success. He was told SGW might see similar work in 2022.

Earlier this month, George attended the mayor's meeting at our clubhouse and heard that Aurora had received a sizeable grant from the federal government, which needed to be used on existing pending repairs. As seen recently, many of the sidewalks of concern in our community have now been repaired using those funds. There are a few that were missed, which hopefully will be addressed next spring. John will continue a dialogue with the city.

Vote: Unanimous in favor

CHANGES FOR STONEGATE WEST VILLAGE HOMES COMMUNICATIONS

PEGGY PRINCE

THANK YOU PEGGY PRINCE!

By Donna Posuch

Imagine Stonegate West Village Homes without the weekly eNews or the quarterly Village Crier. These publications are the fabric of networking and dissemination of information in our community. Our neighbors rely on them to know what events are happening, who is new in the neighborhood and even whose birthday is coming up. The Village Crier is the platform for sharing insights on the people who live here, their interests and backgrounds. These things help connect us.

As the community evolves and transitions, so have these communications. Since mid-November, eNews has taken on a fresh professional look, with an improved software generator and new editor, Susan Engdall. The last issue of The Village Crier also heralded in the dawn of a new era. For the first time, an outside firm is being used for publishing and direct mailing.

It is important to recognize that without the pioneers in the neighborhood, there would not have been a Village Crier or eNews to evolve. One of those key people is the retiring chair of Communications, Peggy Prince. Having been in that role since 2012, Peggy has contributed a great deal to the neighborhood. She relocated here in 2007 and has been very engaged from that time. In fact, she attended her first board meeting before she had even moved here and has been a stable attendee of both associations' board meetings ever since.

"Of course," says Peggy, "LaVerne Wittman started both publications, along with the social committee, on which I served. I assumed the role for chair of communications after she stepped down in 2012." Since that time, Peggy has leveraged her involvement in Stonegate West to enhance the information in the newsletter. As the manager of content, she would initiate topics for articles that would be of interest to the community. She suggested features on residents' unusual hobbies or personal stories and even a "History of Stonegate West Village Homes" which ended up expanding into three issues of The Village Crier.

When Peggy became communications chair, it was also about the same time that Ryan began selling homes to complete the development. "I was determined to include the new residents in a way that made them feel vested in our neighborhood. Communications was key to doing that, so that they were introduced to existing residents via The Village Crier and were made aware of everything available to them."

Peggy remembered growing up in a small town in southern Illinois, a significant number of new residents were relocated from Oklahoma as part of a company transfer. Even though many of them lived there for decades, they were always considered outsiders. She did not want that to happen in Stonegate West.

Peggy's small town upbringing influenced her in other ways. Raised on a farm, her parents moved to an area with a population of 600 when Peggy was entering high school. Due to the size of the community, every event became a "town event". Peggy put that into practice by joining almost every club available in high school. She has carried that approach forward to Stonegate West. She participates in activities as much as she can and cares about the community to the point of even watering the pots in front of the clubhouse!

A lifelong Illinois resident, Peggy attended Eastern Illinois University in Charleston, Ill, graduating with a BS in Home Economics. After graduation, she started her family, ultimately having three children. Once the youngest was in school, Peggy returned to school herself. She then earned a master's degree in Guidance Counseling and worked in that capacity at Yorkville High School for 30 years. She lived in a few places nearby to Aurora after she retired, but never experienced a real sense of belonging. Peggy states, "I have certainly found that small town I was looking for again in Stonegate West."

Peggy's attitude and background were the perfect complement to take the community from the modest number of homes with Kensington to almost doubling in size with the Ryan homes phase. During this time she has seen many changes of individuals making contributions to the newsletter and eNews. According to Peggy, "I just felt like, with this latest change, the time was right for me to step down as communications chair. I am content knowing that The Village Crier and eNews will continue and that they are in good hands moving forward."

Susan Merriman, the new communications chair acknowledges, "Without Peggy's expertise and influence, the neighborhood would not have the robust communications framework that it has today. She is so dedicated and hard-working. We had to get several volunteers to replace what she did singlehandedly! I am delighted she will remain on the communications committee."

While Peggy is giving up her lead responsibility, she will remain a presence to provide guidance. With her background of doing that for 30 years, it is the perfect role.

THUMBS UP!
